

Copy of a letter from His Excellency John Floyd, Governor of Virginia, relative to the Boundary Line between that State and Maryland.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
RICHMOND, Nov. 29th, 1832. }

SIR:

I received the letter which you did me the honor to address to me, soon after my return to this city, from whence I had been absent for some time, enclosing the resolutions adopted by the legislature of the State over which you preside, relating to a claim, which is now renewed, to a part of our territory on the North.

I will at the ensuing session of the General Assembly, lay them before that body, with great pleasure, and cheerfully acquiesce in any course the representatives of the people may think proper to pursue.

I cannot, however, otherwise than believe, that had the documents lately come into our possession been known to you, that you would have abandoned the claim altogether as untenable. I sincerely hope nothing may occur to interrupt the good understanding which has always existed between the two States.

I am, sir, with great consideration and respect,
Your obedient servant,

JOHN FLOYD.

His Excellency,
Gov. Howard, of Maryland.
